Election in Germany Is Uneasy Time

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials fervently hope West German politicians can get through the final month of their national election campaign without further complicating the dangerous East-West crisis over Berlin.

The votes will be cast Sept. 17, determining the choice between Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Christian Democrat, and Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt, Social Democrat. Until that date, there will be constant risk the Berlin situation may become more deeply and explosively involved in campaign debate.

American authorities, preoccupied with the task of developing a firm but nonprovocative opposition to Moscow's Berlin demands, would like to see the whole issue soft-pedaled in West German domestic politics. They were disturbed in this respect by moves made by Brandt and Adenauer this week.

There is reason to believe that, where possible, American authorities in Washington and in Bonn and Berlin urge the view that all discussions of Berlin problems be dealt with in the most sober, diplomatic and nonpolitical manner—in a spirit of bipartisan approach.

The official U. S. position, however, is strictly hands-off so far as the German election contest is concerned. And the only line which authorities here will take in discussing the matter privately is that U. S. representatives seize every opportunity, in talks with German leaders, to stress the importance of Western strength and unity in the confrontation with the Soviet Union over Berlin.

Two moves are typical of the sort of thing which worries official Washington. After East German Communists closed their Berlin frontier with the West and shut off the flow of refugees, West Berlin Mayor Brandt sent a letter to President Kennedy appealing for "political action" instead of talk on the part of the Western powers. He then announced his action at a mass meeting. Thursday, however, Brandt took a quieter line, saying he was pleased with the latest protest made by the United States, Britain and France directly to the Soviet government against the border closing.

Chancellor Adenauer, whose words carry the weight of one responsible for West German foreign policy, also discussed the Berlin situation at an election meeting Monday. He talked about a trade embargo against the Communist bloc. This brought from the Communist side warnings of a crackdown on the movement of supplies across East German territory to West Berlin.

Litterbugs Cost State $50,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state $50,000 to pick up trash deposited along the state's highways by litterbugs during the first six months of this year.

The job took 34,170 man hours and crews traveled 69,266 truck miles to get it done, said Maintenance Engineer R. B. Winfrey. They picked up 10,000 tons of trash.

Highway crews collect rubbish during their spare time, Winfrey said. Their primary job is to maintain roads and bridges.

Winfrey said all the trash collecting work was done on main highways. "We don't have the men or money to scout the secondary and more lightly traveled roads," he added.

Walker Says He Talked of Americanism

CLEVELAND (AP)—The former commanding general of an American division in Europe said Thursday night he exposed his troops to Americanism rather than the ultraconservative John Birch Society views.

Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker again denied he ever described former President Harry S. Truman, former Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt as "definitely pink."

He is now assistant deputy for operations at the U.S. Army headquarters in Heidelberg, Germany. Walker made his remarks in an interview. He flew here from his post in Germany to attend a reunion of his World War II command unit, the 1st Special Service Force, Mrs. Charlotte T. Walker, his mother, accompanied him.

Several Congress members in April demanded an investigation after a privately owned service men's newspaper, Overseas Weekly, reported that an informational program set up by Walker was distributing material about the philosophy of the controversial John Birch Society.

The 51 year old bachelor general who commanded troops at Little Rock, Ark., during the 1957 integration disorders, was shifted immediately to Heidelberg by the Army pending the outcome of an inquiry. He said the investigation cleared his program.

Walker said his program was intended to keep the troops "psychologically prepared for their duties." It was not a defensive program, he said, but one to train them in Americanism, citizenship responsibilities and the Christian faith. He denied it was connected with the Birch Society.

State Halts Newburgh's Relief Probe

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—Supreme Court Justice John P. Donohoe today granted the state a temporary injunction against Newburgh's controversial tightening program on relief recipients.

Donohoe signed the injunction Thursday at his home in Cold Springs and officially filed the papers today at the Orange County Courthouse in Goshen. The justice had heard state and city arguments on the matter at a hearing here Aug. 4.

Newburgh, with an increasingly heavy relief load, had sought to require able bodied relief recipients to work, and relief payments to women bearing more illegitimate children, and set up other restrictions.

City Manager Joseph Mitchell, spearhead of the tightened welfare program, said the city would appeal.

A second step is necessary before the decision becomes effective. That will be the issuance of an order to the city as a follow to the injunction.

The order, specifically directing the city officials to end the new welfare plan, is expected to be issued by Donohoe in a few days.

If the defendants feel that the welfare laws of the state of New York are inadequate to accomplish their purposes, their recourse is to the New York State Legislature, which has created these laws," Donohoe said in his ruling.

"The unilateral effort to abrogate these laws is not within the power of the said defendants," Donohoe rejected a motion by the city to dismiss the state's petition for an injunction.

"The defendants have had their day in court," Donohoe said. "This court of equity will not countenance any further delay in granting temporary injunctive relief."

Mitchell said: "This was expected. We shall appeal. In the meantime, we shall continue our other measures which are showing promise of being just as effective."

"The only way the state board of social welfare and the attorney general can stop our welfare reform will be to take over the operation of the welfare department or remove us from office," Mitchell's reference to other measures meant relief curbing activities other than those included in the 13 point program adopted last month.

The Newburgh plan, which attracted nationwide attention, would limit relief to any individual, except the aged, blind or infirm, to three months in any one year.

Last Monday the Navy announced it will keep 25,000 men Continued on Page Four

Cuban Ship in Flight to U. S. Port

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The crewmen of the Cuban cargo ship Bahia de Nipe, including the captain, sought political asylum in the United States after diverting the vessel here Thursday night, a naval spokesman said today.

The men radioed their intentions and anchored the 1,800 ton vessel in Lynnhaven Roads, a short distance inside Chesapeake Bay.

The defectors from the Fidel Castro regime in Cuba were taken off the ship aboard a Coast Guard cutter and transferred to the Norfolk Naval Station. There they were interrogated during the night by immigration and customs officers.

A 5th Naval District spokesman said the Swiss government, which handles U.S. affairs in Havana in the absence of diplomatic relations between this country and Cuba, has been advised.

He had nothing to say about the prospect as to whether the men would be admitted as refugees.

There was no precise information as to the number of men remaining aboard the Bahia de Nipe, but such a ship would be unlikely to carry a crew of more than 30. She remained at anchor in Lynnhaven Roads.

The vessel, loaded with a cargo of raw sugar, was bound from Cuba to a Russian port. The ship was to receive orders for a special port of destination on approaching Russia.

There was one report the Bahia de Nipe recently had called at Soviet ports.

In Washington, there was no immediate comment from the State Department.

Coast Guard officers—along with immigration, customs and health officials—boarded the vessel in rough seas Thursday night. At least three Coast Guard boats approached the ship, and one put out a boarding party.

A 40-foot patrol boat later returned to the nearby Little Creek boat station after standing by the Cuban vessel for several hours, but her crew refused to discuss the situation.

In Washington, the State Department declined comment beyond acknowledging receipt of a Coast Guard message of the ship's arrival.

As a customary diplomatic move, the department is expected to notify the Castro government of the ship's arrival. This would be done through the Swiss government. Continued on Page Four

High-Level Talks Next Berlin Move

By JOHN FIENH

BERLIN (AP)—A proposal to the Russians for high-level talks on the future of Germany and Berlin today appeared to be the Western Allies' next likely move in the Berlin crisis.

Reliable sources in London said the United States, Britain and France are drafting new messages to Moscow that could lead to meetings of East-West foreign ministers or chiefs of state.

The notes probably will go to the Kremlin next week, the sources said. They will reply to Soviet notes of Aug. 3 expressing willingness for negotiations aimed at concluding a German peace treaty.

The Western powers were reported determined as ever to reject Soviet Premier Khrushchev's demands that West Berlin be made a disarmed, neutral city and peace treaties be signed with West and East Germany as separate states.

While the East German Communists boasted of a victory in the first round of the new Berlin crisis, talk in the West of tough reprisals tapered off. Instead, officials in Washington and London contended that the Reds had put Continued on Page Four LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Selective Service headquarters said Friday Arkansas' largest draft call since the Korean War will be filled with non-father registrants about 23 years old.

The call of 273 men for the state was announced by State Selective Service Director Fred M. Croon last Friday. Previously the Associated Press had reported that Arkansas' share of a national quota of 25,000 men would be 250 to 300 men.

Priest Found Radio Tool for Schools

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Fourteen years ago a newly ordained young Roman Catholic priest arrived in the Colombian Andean hamlet of Sututena to take up his first assignment as parish priest.

He brought with him a home-made radio transmitter, three used battery radio sets, and a determination to fight illiteracy and a growing Communist influence among the Colombia peasants.

After the radios were put in farm homes, Father Jose Joaquin Salcedo launched his Radio Sututena School of the Air—a project in self-education that today covers all of rural Colombia and has its counterpart in 15 other Latin-American countries.

"I didn't realize what a potent thing we had begun until a group of men came with a complaint," said Father Salcedo recalling the humble beginnings of his radio project. "They said the classes were held in the evenings when they were tired from their day's work. They asked me to change the programs to 6 in the morning when their minds would be fresh."

The Radio Sututena classes mix skillful planning with simplicity. They teach the three R's, agriculture, hygiene, geography, history, civics and religion.

The radio schools are organized into two types, for family and for group listening. The group is headed by a volunteer leader, an interested student who sees that the instructions from the radio teacher are followed. Schoolrooms are provided free.

Father Salcedo estimates that some 530,000 persons are receiving Radio Sututena instruction today.

First schools in Arkansas were religious schools under the direction of the Jesuits, who, during the French and Spanish regimes, made some effort at instructing the Indians in things temporal as well as spiritual.

Largest U. S. Rocket Fails Crucial Test

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif.

After 18 successful secret test firings, America's biggest rocket engine flunked its first public demonstration.

The mighty F1, on which America has pinned its hopes of being the first to put men on the moon, burned for only 1 1/2 seconds Wednesday before a malfunction forced it to stop.

It was scheduled to at least equal its longest previous burning time of 20 seconds.

In even that brief period, however, instruments showed it built up a thrust of a million pounds—almost three times the power of an Atlas intercontinental missile.

When working properly the F1 engine has a thrust of 1 1/2 million pounds.

Engineers explained after the failure that the extreme vibration of the engine had damaged a switch on a fuel valve, causing an automatic shutdown.

It was the first time newsmen had been allowed to witness an F1 firing.

The F1 is being developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for the Nova moon vehicle. Eight F1s, developing 12 million pounds of thrust, are to be clustered as the first stage of a 400 foot tall rocket which is expected to boost a three-man Apollo space craft to the moon by 1967.

PARIS (AP) — Three wooden heads bobbed in the fair ground stall as targets for ball throwers—Kennedy, Khrushchev and De Gaulle.

The luckless thrower blushed. He was Premier Michel Debre, vacationing in the west of France. The Paris newspaper Aurore published the news, without comment, today.

Cuban Used Stolen U. S. Documents

WASHINGTON (AP) — A State Department spokesman today confirmed the authenticity of two documents used by Cuba to attack the United States at the inter-American economic meeting.

The spokesman said the documents were stolen from the car of Teodoro Moscoso, U.S. ambassador to Venezuela, when it was burned in a left-inspired riot in Caracas June 14.

A U.S. spokesman at the Punta del Este, Uruguay, conference said earlier this week that the documents had been stolen from the ambassador's car.

The State Department investigated after Ernesto Guevara, Cuba's economic czar and delegate to the conference, quoted from the documents in a bitter speech against the United States. He claimed they demonstrated the Venezuelan government had been "domesticated by U.S. imperialism."

The Cuban delegation circulated copies of the documents among the other Latin-American delegations.

One of the documents, prepared for use within the U.S. diplomatic system by staff employees, assessed Latin-American opinion about the U.S.-Cuban situation in the wake of the abortive Cuban invasion and subsequent statements by Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The document portrayed most of Latin America as unwilling to formally endorse direct U.S. intervention against Cuba except in case of an unmistakable Castro involvement in an attack on a Latin-American government.

The other document, in describing how U.S. economic aid could be most effectively applied in Venezuela, criticized Venezuela's government administration as inefficient and graft-ridden and its tax structure as favoring the rich. The document termed reform a basic necessity if U.S. aid is to be put to best use.

The State Department spokesman said the documents were intended for internal use among U.S. officials in trying to help Venezuela with her reforms and were in no sense a criticism of the Venezuelan president, Romulo Betancourt, whose policies Washington supports.

Beverage Control Board agents failed to appear to testify because of a misunderstanding over the time of the hearing. The five charged are Glenn Wheeler, Carl Burch, Mrs. Lee Martin, Travis Dean and Douglas Mason.

Kennedys Get Big Hand at Boston Play

BOSTON (AP) — A song line about "all those Kennedys" drew a smile and applause from Jacqueline Kennedy Thursday night as the President's wife watched the musical comedy "Sail Away."

The First Lady got the first and last ovals of the evening when she came and left the crowded Colonial Theater.

She told author Noel Coward she thought the play was wonderful.

Comedienne Elaine Stritch had the Kennedy line. It went: "Why do the wrong people travel when the right people stay back home—with all those Kennedys?"

The line is a regular part of the show.

Mrs. Kennedy applauded enthusiastically during the musical about shipboard romance on a Caribbean cruise.

Pay TV Foes May Go to Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Next step in attempts by a group of theater operators to prevent a pay television experiment for Little Rock may come in the courts. The Public Service Commission Wednesday refused to reconsider its approval of Midwest Video, Inc.'s application to operate a pay television system. An attorney for the theater operators said no decision had been made concerning a possible appeal to the courts.

The Baptist are said to have built the first house of worship in Little Rock.

Crack Golfer Reads Book He Wrote

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — Billy Casper ruffled through a new golf book titled "Chipping and Putting" after taking the first round lead Thursday in the $35,000 Indian Spring Open.

He couldn't have picked up any tips—if he needed them. The author is Billy Casper.

It was the first time the 30-year-old from Apple Valley, Calif., saw his finished printed product. Other pros have seen Casper put his advice to use.

Casper went into today's second round of the 72-hole tournament with a two-stroke lead over Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., and Tommy Jacobs of Bermuda Dunes, Calif., also pitching for their first 1961 victories.

Casper, Rudolph and Jacobs led a group of only 11 golfers out of the 147 who were able to finish ahead of par.

It was Casper's short game again Thursday that pulled him around the 7,031-yard Indian Spring Country Club course in 66 strokes, four under par.

1st Round of 4-States Golf Tourney

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Medalist Paul Collum of Texarkana takes on Jack Trigg of Texarkana today in the first match play round of the Four States Invitational golf tournament.

Defending champion Bobby Wood of Texarkana meets John Kennedy of Mt. Pleasant, Tex., in first round competition.

One round is scheduled today, one Saturday, and two rounds Sunday.

Collum shot a 3-under-par 69 Thursday for medalist honors in the tournament. Dan Murphy of Texarkana, son of Texarkana Country Club professional Don Murphy, was second in the qualifying round with a 70.

Tied at 73 were Raleigh Selby of New London, Tex.; Jay Smith of Dallas; Charles Collins of Texarkana; Jack Millaway of Idabel, Okla.; and Tommy Fuqua of Texarkana.

Selby meets John Smith of Dallas in the first round. Dan Murphy takes on Mike Mitchell of Texarkana and Jay Smith of Dallas faces Keith McMillan of Oklahoma City. Collins meets Tony Meredith of Texarkana and Millaway plays D. C. Chancey of Dallas. Fuqua meets Bob Rawlings of Dallas.

Wood did not have to qualify since he won last year's tournament.

A total of 157 golfers are competing in the 26th annual tournament.

Parents Too Nervous to See Tourney

By JACK HEWINS SEATTLE (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lowell of Hayward, Calif., will have to watch their daughter play golf today or stay in the club house and worry.

The only match left in the National Girls' Junior Tournament is the one red-haired Mary Lowell is playing with Maggie Martin of St. Clairsville, Ohio, for the championship.

The two 17-year-olds upset favored opponents Thursday to reach the 18-hole final.

Miss Martin defeated Jeannie Thompson of Tulsa, Okla., in the 18th hole after being 4-down early in their match.

The stirring comeback by the slim, undermanned Ohio youngster was followed by Mr.

Drug Firms Indicted as Price-Fixers

NEW YORK (AP) — Three of the country's major makers of wonder drugs and three of their top executives, have been indicted on charges of price rigging and monopoly.

The defendants are accused of maintaining unreasonably high prices passed on to patients, druggists and hospitals.

Indicted in three counts Thursday by a federal grand jury after a 16-month investigation were: Chas. Pfizer Co., Inc., and its president, John E. McKee; American Cyanamid Co. and its board chairman, Wilbur G. Malcolm; and Bristol-Myers Co. and its president, Frederic N. Schwartz.

All denied the charges. The government claims the three companies control about 70 per cent of the market for three of the most widely used antibiotics — aureomycin, terramycin and tetracycline, all valuable in treating infectious diseases. In 1959 retail sales of these drugs totaled $250 million.

Tetracycline also is known under the trade names achromycin, tetracycline, polycycline, steclin and panmycin.

All the drugs are dispensed on a physician's prescription. The three companies were accused by the government of withholding information and misleading the U.S. Patent Office in order to obtain the tetracycline patent.

Named in the indictment as co-conspirators but not defendants, were Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp., parent company of E. R. Squibb Sons, and the Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo, Mich.

The indictment charged that until November, 1953, American Cyanamid's aureomycin and Pfizer's terramycin were practically alone in the antibiotics field. In that month and year, Pfizer, Cyanamid and Bristol-Myers sought patents on the newly developed tetracycline, said the indictment.

Pfizer and Cyanamid knew that tetracycline was directly competitive with terramycin and aureomycin and represented a threat to the continuation of their dominant positions and unreasonably high profits," it added. "Pfizer and Cyanamid also knew that unless one of them could obtain a product patent on tetracycline, prices of broad-spectrum antibiotic products could become competitive."

As a result, the government contends, a deal was made whereby Pfizer, with the aid of Cyanamid, obtained the tetracycline patent, and then exclusively licensed Cyanamid and Bristol-Myers to manufacture the drug.

The government charges the defendant companies had refused to sell bulk tetracycline to any companies except Squibb and Upjohn, upon agreement of the latter to purchase all their supplies from Bristol-Myers.

The indictment carries a maximum penalty on conviction of three years imprisonment and $50,000 fines against the companies.

A probe alleged price-fixing in the antibiotics field was undertaken last September by the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee. The investigation was led by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn. tetracycline was sold to the public for $51, although it cost only $5.03 to make. The cost figures were based on a bottle of 100 capsules of 250 milligrams each.

themselves on the defensive by closing the border through Berlin and that the time is ripe for negotiations.

In a new demonstration of Western reluctance to force a showdown, West German Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss told a news conference in Munich that "the time has come to be calm and patient and to keep one's head cool."

As yet there was no public response from Moscow to the stiff allied notes Thursday protesting the closing of the Berlin border and demanding that Moscow "put an end to these illegal measures."

The Russians are expected to reject the protest.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt, who has been clamoring for reprisals against the new Communist restrictions, approved and Mrs. Lowell while daughter Mary was outlasting the Missouri women's champion, Judy Torueme, 16, of St. Louis.

Watching their daughter in competition makes them nervous, the Lowells explained, and they feared their jitters might bother Mary if she glanced their way.

Mary and Miss Torueme were tied after nine holes. Then Judy went 2 up. Mary won the 14th and 16th holes and they came up to the final green on even terms. Mary carded an easy par 5 but Judy just missed a seven-foot putt to lose the match.

Yanks Win, Widen Lead Over Tigers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle put the show on the road to night as the New York Yankees, their race for the American League pennant strictly a side attraction, open a 13-game tour with the first of four games at Cleveland against the Indians.

Maris, with 13 to go to break Babe Ruth's old 60 run record, has belted four of his five homers off Indians pitching at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. Mantle, trailing Maris by three home runs with his total of 45, has tagged the Cleveland staff for just one homer so far. He socked it in the Indians' park off Jim Grant, the right hander who opposes Yankee Jim Coates in tonight's game.

For the record, Maris is 14 games ahead of Ruth's record pace of 1927. He has hit nine home runs in the four parks the Yankees will visit on this trip—Cleveland, 4; Los Angeles, 1; Kansas City, 3; and Minnesota, 1. Mantle has collected seven in the same parks—Cleveland, 1; Los Angeles, 2; Kansas City, 2; and Minnesota, 2.

Neither managed to add to his total Thursday as the Yankees ended a home stand with a 5-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox. That gave them a four-game bulge again over Detroit when the second place Tigers lost their second in a row to Baltimore, 3-1.

Cleveland beat Boston 4-3 in 14 innings and Washington defeated the Los Angeles Angels 4-3 in the only other AL games scheduled.

In the National League, St. Louis spilled San Francisco 2-0 behind Larry Jackson's three-hit pitching. Philadelphia set a modern NL record when Milwaukee handed the Phils their 20th consecutive defeat 7-6 in 11 innings, and Pittsburgh split with Chicago, the Cubs winning 11-4 before the Bucs took the second game 4-3. Cincinnati and the Los Angeles Dodgers were idle.

Maris, after hitting home runs in each of his last six games, was 0-for-4 against losing southpaw Frank Baumann (9-10) and right-handed reliever Russ Kemmerer of the White Sox. Mantle, who has failed to connect for a home run in his last three games, had one hit, a triple, and drove in two runs as the Yankees put away their 12th victory in 15 games.

A three run fourth inning did it. Bill Stafford (10-6) was the winner.

Whitey Herog drove in all three Oriole runs with a home run and a single off Paul Foytack (7-8) while Jack Fisher (6-11) limited the Tigers to five hits.

A bases-loaded walk on a 3-2 pitch to Ken Aspromonte by losing reliever Mike Fornieles (6-7) gave it to the Indians. Bobby Locke (4-1) was the winner in relief.

A's to Stay in K. C., Says Their Owner

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The struggling Kansas City Athletics are going to stay in this city says Charles Finley, owner of the 10th-place American League club.

The Kansas City Star says Finley may try to shift the franchise to Dallas, Tex.

Finley, who was in Dallas Thursday, said he was there only to try to make an honest dollar in his insurance business. He said he didn't know where the rumors of a move started.

The rumors gained momentum when Ernie Mehl, the Star's sports editor, reported Finley might seek to recoup in Dallas after a disappointing first year at the turnstiles.

The A's are 3½ games behind the first place New York Yankees.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so the sun will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times. If you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at 12:00 a.m. and last for an hour and a half or two hours there after. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

STOPPED THIEF!—Bill Bruton hits the dirt in an attempt to steal second base at Tiger Stadium. Johnny Temple of the Cleveland Indians has the ball, however, so there is nothing for Umpire Bill McKinley to do but thumb the Detroit center fielder out. He's top baserunner.

Phils Lose 20th Game in a Row

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Philadelphia Phillies, hoping to build a winner, have instead put together the longest losing streak any National League team has had to suffer through since the turn of the century.

They lost their 20th in a row Thursday night the hard way—twice coming from behind, only to twice blow leads, before finally losing 7-6 in 11 innings at Milwaukee.

While Cleveland, a long ago National League entry, set the all-time record for consecutive losses with 24 in 1890, only three post-1900 teams ever before lost as many as 20 in a row and all were American League clubs—the Boston Red Sox of 1906, and the Philadelphia A's of 1916 and 1943.

The old National League high, or low, if you prefer, since 1900 was 19, set by the Boston Braves of 1906 and tied by the Cincinnati Reds of 1914.

The present day Braves ran their winning streak to seven and edged within a half game of third place San Francisco. The Giants were knocked off 2-0 by the St. Louis Cardinals and the three-hit pitching of Larry Jackson. The Braves trail Cincinnati's first place Reds, who like the Los Angeles Dodgers were idle, by 8½ games.

Pittsburgh and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Cubs winning 11-4 before the Pirates pulled out a 4-3 decision in the nightcap.

In the American League, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle failed to hit a home run, but the New York Yankees trimmed the Chicago White Sox 5-3 for a four-game bulge over Detroit. The second place Tigers lost 3-1 to Baltimore. Cleveland defeated Boston 4-3, in 14 innings, and Washington beat the Los Angeles Angels 4-3 in the only other games scheduled.

The Phils lost No. 20 when Le Maye walked in the 11th inning and came around on Frank Bolling's sacrifice, an error, a walk to Ed Mathews and a one-out single by Al Spangler. Jack Baldschun (4-3) was the loser and Don Nottebart (4-6) was the winner, both in relief.

Ken Boyer drove in both of the Cards' runs with a sixth-inning double and an eighth-inning single off southpaw Mike McCormick (9-12). Jackson (9-9), pitching his first shutout of the season, didn't walk a man in beating the Giants for the seventh straight time since opening day last season.

Dick Drott (1-3), winless in 11 decisions, won the opener in relief for the Cubs, who counted four home runs, two by Ernie Banks, in a 13-hit spree against Wilmer Mitchell (6-9) and two relievers. The Bucs then won the second game as Bob Clemente drove in three runs with a pair of singles. Earl Francis (2-5) was the winner and Jim Brewer (0-6) the loser.

Travelers 3rd on Sweep With Mobile

By ROSS M. HAGEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Little Rock Travelers are going places in the dying stages of the Southern Association baseball race.

But whether Fred Hatfield's Johnny-come-lately club can maintain a pennant-winning pace is problematical, particularly since the Arkansasans are seven and a half games out of first place.

The Travelers won their fourth straight game from Mobile Thursday night, 12-5. It was Little Rock's ninth victory in 10 games and boosted the Travelers into a virtual tie for third with Atlanta.

The Crackers bowed to Chattanooga 3-2, permitting the Lookouts to pull within 1½ games of front-running Birmingham. The Barons dropped a 4-2 decision to Shreveport. Macon outlasted Nashville 4-3 in 10 innings in the other league contest.

Little Rock collected 36 hits off the three Mobile pitchers and touched each for four runs. Don Saner led the Traveler attack with a four-for-five performance at the plate. Saner is the league's leading batter. Mobile's big moment came in the ninth when Claude Horn tripled with the bases loaded driving home three runs. Except for that lapse, Little Rock left-hander George Stepanovich was in command all the way.

Manager Les Peden spearheaded Shreveport's game-winning attack against Birmingham. He scored after doubling in the second inning and pounded a home run in the fourth.

Some less than big league play ruined a fine pitching performance by Atlanta's Larry Williams. The young right-hander had a perfect game and a one-run lead going into the seventh inning. Then a series of misplays gave the Lookouts three unearned runs. It

PERILOUS PITCHING—The danger a batter faces when a pitcher decides to dust him off, or is unintentionally too close, is graphically shown as Cincinnati right fielder Frank Robinson hits the dirt in Los Angeles. Umpire Dusty Boggess warned the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, who dusted Robinson a second time, then struck him in the arm. Insert shows Boggess pointing an accusing finger at Drysdale, who was thrown out of the game.

Fish Drouth Probed by Fulbright

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has asked for a quick start on a program to determine the cause of declining fish population in reservoirs behind federal dams.

Thursday he asked the Interior Department to press such a study, for which $85,000 has been appropriated. It will involve research in the Bull Shoals, Norfolk and Beaver reservoirs in north Arkansas.

"I cannot over emphasize," Fulbright said in a letter to Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, "the importance of finding a solution to this problem to my state and started when Atlanta shortstop Bart Shirley bobbled a ground ball. Then Jerry Reimer singled. The first hit given up by Williams. A double, a passed ball a fielder's choice did the rest.

Tony Barriomeo picked an opportune moment to strike his first homer of the season. His four-bagger pulled Macon into a ninth-inning tie with Nashville. The Peaches punched across the winning run in the 10th on a single, a walk and a single by Nick Testa.

Reds Gleeful Over Hold on First Place

CINCINNATI (AP)—It's a fine feeling to be in first place—I hope we stay there," Cincinnati Reds' General Manager Bill Dewitt said today.

The Reds regained a one-game margin in the National League pennant race this week by sweeping a three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers in the Coliseum. The Dodgers, still in close pursuit, are due at Crosley Field for a two-evening appearance next week.

Before that, the Reds, who got a heroes' welcome home Thursday, will entertain the St. Louis Cardinals, the Philadelphia Phils and the San Francisco Giants.

Dewitt refused to sound overly optimistic about the future. "Every club is tough," he said. "You're never over the hump till you get to the last week of the season. No, better make it last game—things can happen in that last week."

Features were Japan's Tsyoshi Yamanaka, Los Angeles' transplanted Australian veteran, Murray Rose, and 16-year-old Roy Saari of nearby El Segundo.

Rose was entered in both the 100 and 1,500 events while Yamanaka was named to go in the 1,500 along with Saari.

Rose and Yamanaka have been battling over a span of the past two Olympic Games. Rose in the 1956 games in Melbourne defeated the powerful Japanese in both the 400 and 1,500. And in Rome in 1960, Rose was pushed to an Olympic record of 4:18.3 in the 400-meter event to win again over Yamanaka.

Saari was geared for an upset win in the 1,500. Recently in Japan he defeated Yamanaka in both the 800 and 1,500.

Defending Club Champion Homer Beyerley meets 1959 Champion Jim Smith Sunday to determine who will take home the gold cup as 1961 champion of Hope Country Club.

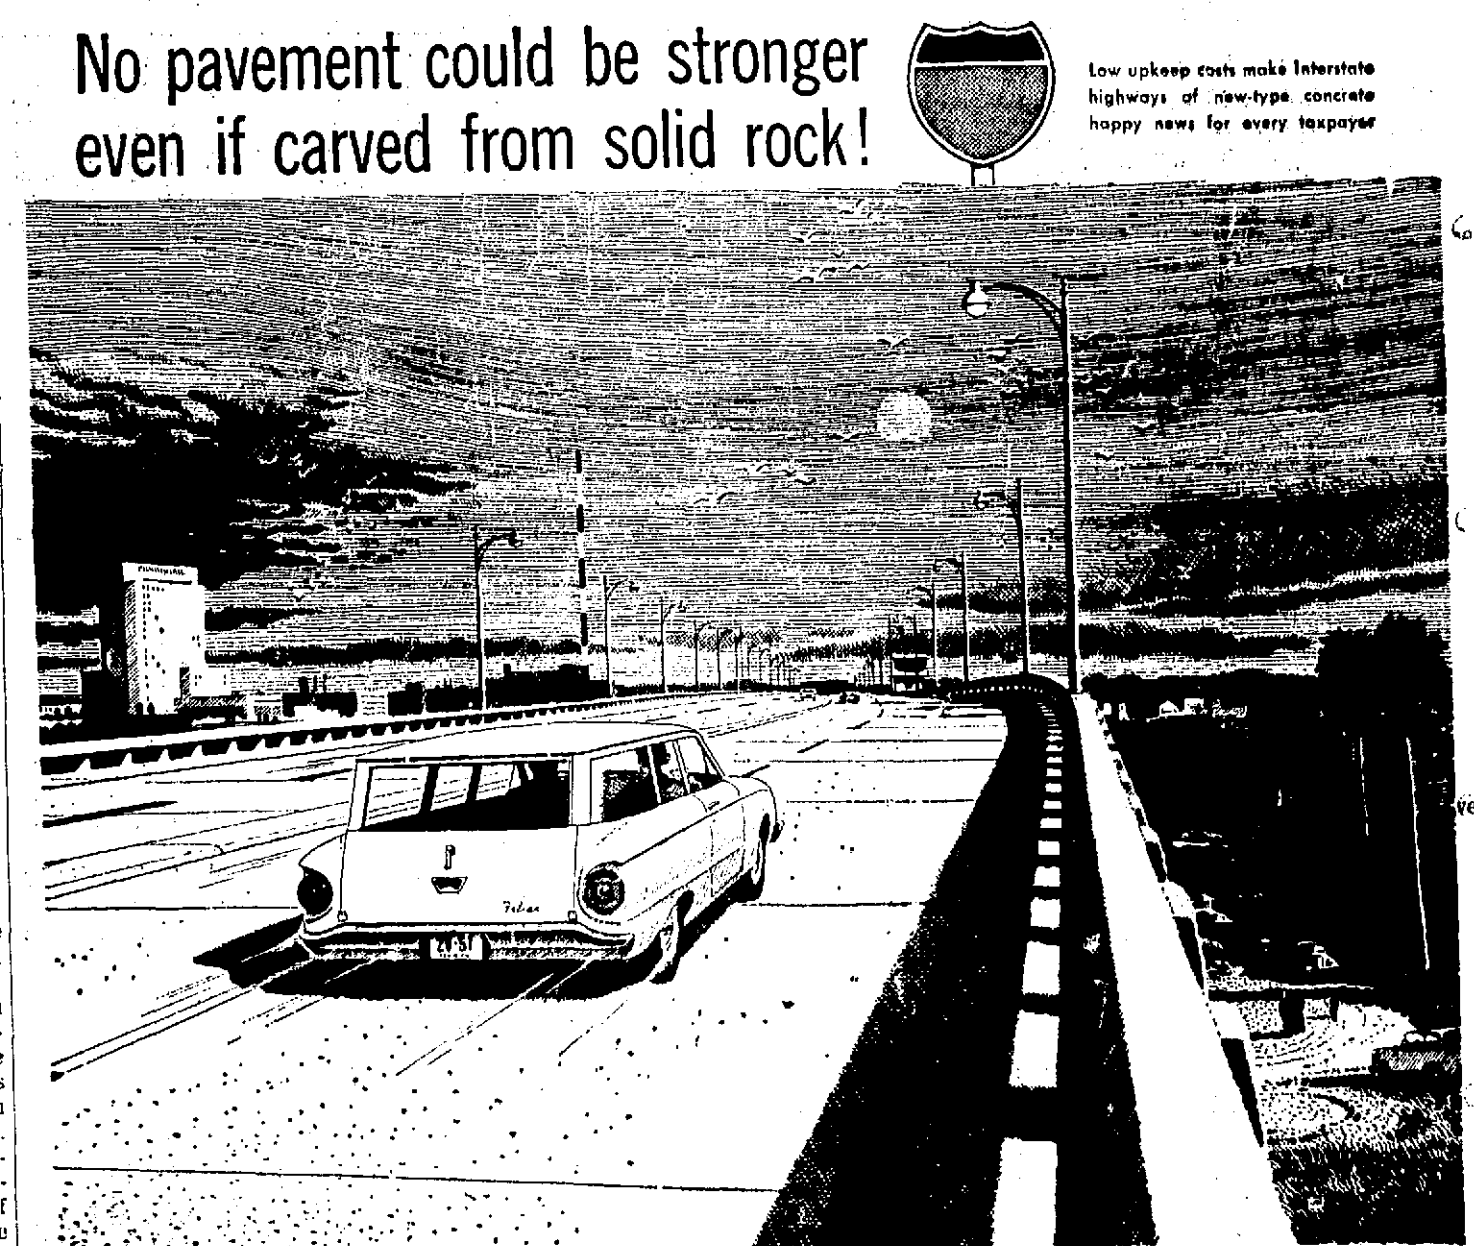

Beyerley defeated Frank Carver last week and Smith took out George Peck to reach the finals.

Mitch LaGrone meets Bill Hair in the first-flight finals. LaGrone defeated Jimmy Jones and Hair upset Johnny Graves in last week's play.

In the second flight Sam Strong, who defeated Lynn Harris, will meet the winner of the Mickey Baber-Albert Graves match.

Eddie Whitman and David Waddle clash in the third flight. Whitman defeated Cecil Delaney, and Waddle eliminated Al Graves.

Frank Coleman of Lewisville won the fourth flight by defeating Fred O. Ellis one up.

No pavement could be stronger even if carved from solid rock!

This surface simply won't wear rough—your driving pleasure lasts on new-type concrete!

You're always at ease, happily relaxed, as you glide over beautiful highways of new-type concrete. No humps, no jounces. It's the flattest pavement there is.

And it stays flat once and for all. Actually, the strength of new-type concrete keeps growing year by year. (Flexible pavements, as they age, can only lose the limited strength they started with!)

With concrete, you'll find everything's designed for your pleasure—and safety. Continuous-laid, new-type concrete pavement has only narrow sawed-in cushion spaces—no humps! On concrete's grainy surface, your car seems so "sure-footed"—even on wet days. Its light color lets you see better at night.

Only new-type concrete enables engineers to design highways to last 50 years and more. And with this comes low upkeep cost—as much as 60% lower than asphalt. Small wonder new-type concrete is preferred for America's new Interstate Highway System.
